

Sailing Area

Low tide is at 11:40.

It is VERY important to stay in the channel (marked with green cans on your right and red nuns on your left) on the way to our racing area. The racing area will be in the opposite direction of the nearby road.

Please review this map – although the area to the right might look like a good place to sail, it's not. You will run aground. When you leave the BC docks, sail to the channel and proceed to the racing area, staying CLOSE to the moored boats the whole way out.
