

NOTICE OF RACE

Port of Los Angeles Harbor Cup Cal Maritime Invitational Intercollegiate Regatta

March 10th-12th, 2023
Hosted by Los Angeles Yacht Club
San Pedro, California

Preamble – Considering the ongoing 2021-2023 Covid-19 Pandemic, all dates, meetings, social events, team requirements while travelling or sailing may be updated by the Host Club or the Organizing Authority.

- 1. Organizing Authority. The Organizing Authority is the Intercollegiate Sailing Association (ICSA). The host Yacht Club is Los Angeles Yacht Club (LAYC). The host school will be the California State University Maritime Academy (Cal Maritime).
- 2. Rules. The regatta will be governed by the ICSA Procedural Rules (PR), the rules as defined in the current Racing Rules of Sailing (RRS) and the Catalina 37 Rules for Handling of Boats, and the Sailing Instructions (SI's).
- 3. Eligibility. Only invited schools will be eligible for this event. To request an invitation, complete the attached Request for Invitation and send to Karen Yoder Cal Maritime. Once invited, schools shall enter by confirming acceptance of invitation in writing (fax or e-mail is acceptable) by December 1, 2022. All USA collegiate sailors must be registered with the Intercollegiate Sailing Association. International students must show their World Sailing number and their school ID or transcripts showing university enrollment.

Application information available, click here

3.1 The minimum/maximum number of crew members is eight (8). In an effort to align with international collegiate sailing rules, teams must include at least two females. Teams may bring two (2) alternate sailors and MUST bring one (1) coach, advisor, or responsible party from their university.

4. Entry and Registration. An Official Entry Form shall be received by the Los Angeles Yacht Club by January 6th, 2023. There is no cost to invited teams for participation in this regatta. Meals, charters for Catalina 37s, and lodging are provided.

5. Boats and Sails. The event will be sailed in Catalina 37's. Ten (10) boats will be provided. The following sails will be provided for each boat: Mainsail, Genoa, and Spinnaker. Boats will initially be allocated by draw, and then rotated at the end of each racing day thereafter. The Catalina 37's will only be provided to teams beginning after the skipper's meeting on the first day of the regatta.

Teams wanting to charter a Catalina 37 for optional additional practice before noted on the regatta schedule below, should contact the Long Beach Sailing Foundation charter manager, in advance, to make arrangements. Contact information is: Mary Voigt - chartermanager@lbycsf.org - 760-568-2163 (call or text)

6. Skippers Meeting and Sailing Instructions. There will be a skipper's meeting at 1000 on Friday, March 10th, 2023 in the Dining Room at LAYC. Sailing Instructions will be available at registration.

- 7.1 A maximum of ten races are scheduled. Of which, three shall constitute a regatta.
8. Program Modifications. The Organizing Authority reserves the right to modify the above program according to prevailing weather conditions and/or unforeseen reasons.
9. Racing Area and Courses. The racing area will be outside Los Angeles Harbor, with the starting area approximately one nautical mile SW of the Los Angeles Harbor Entrance. Courses will be windward-leeward as diagramed in the Sailing Instructions.
10. Penalty System. Rule 44.1 will be used. This changes PR 31. B.
11. Trophies. Trophies for first through third place shall be awarded. The Port of Los Angeles Harbor Cup Perpetual Trophy shall be awarded to the first place team.
12. Coaching. All coaching shall be done from the designated coach boat(s). One (1) boat per two teams requesting will be provided upon request. Please designate on the Entry Form if your team would like to reserve a coach boat.
13. Housing. The Organizing Authority will assist competing teams in finding local housing at LAYC members' or Cal Maritime alumni private residences. Additional housing may be provided aboard LAYC members' yachts. A special group rate may be arranged at the Doubletree Hotel (310) 909-7550 which is adjacent to LAYC. Teams must designate on the request for invitation if they require housing. The Organizing Authority will only provide housing and food for ten (10) participants (8 sailors, 1 alternate & 1 coach/advisor) from Thursday night through Sunday night. Any additional nights or participants will not be provided for through this regatta.
14. Liability responsibility. The organizers and sponsors bear no responsibility for accidents, damages or injuries to boats or their personnel arising from any cause during races or related activities. Attention is drawn to RRS Part I - Fundamental Rules. The safety of a boat and its crew is the sole and inescapable responsibility of the Skipper who must ensure that the boat is fully sound, thoroughly seaworthy and manned by an experienced and physically capable crew. Neither the establishment of regulations or inspection of a boat in any way limits or reduces the complete and unlimited responsibility of the Skipper. It is the sole and inescapable responsibility of the Skipper of each boat to decide whether to start or continue in any race. Teams will be responsible for any damage to the boat or loss of equipment up to $1,000.
15. Media. Media representatives intending to attend or to cover the event are requested to register with the Port of Los Angeles Public Relations Division at the address below. All media rights shall be vested in the Organizing Authority, who shall seek to extend maximum cooperation to individual teams wishing to bring television crews to the event. Television crews shall register with the regatta organizers.
